Cougar Volleyball: A History of Success

The Washington State volleyball program, entering its 41st year, has a proud and distinguished history of postseason competition. Playing in the Pac-12, the "Conference of Champions," provides WSU with top nationally-ranked opponents on a weekly basis throughout the season. The Cougars have participated in the NCAA Championship Tournament ten times, with two Elite Eight appearances.

In 1977 the WSU team participated in the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) National Championships. The Marie Matson-coached squad was the regional champion but grabbed one win in five matches at the national tournament.

WSU's first NCAA Championship Tournament appearance came in 1991, starting a streak of post-season play for head coach Cindy Fredrick's teams. The No. 19 Cougars, led by All-Pac-10 selections Carrie Couturier and Keri Killebrew, traveled to Albuquerque and faced the No. 8 New Mexico Lobos, falling 3-1. The following year the Cougars were the top seed in the 16-team NIVC tournament in Kansas City. No. 20 WSU convincingly swept the bracket, winning the national title in 18-straight sets (six matches). WSU setter Keri Killebrew, a first-team All-Pac-10 selection, was the NIVC Most Valuable Player and became the first Cougar to earn All-America honors in volleyball.

In 1993, No. 21 WSU, led by All-Pac-10 selection Becky Howlett, defeated the University of San Diego 3-1 in the first round of the NCAA Championships in Provo, Utah. The crimson Cougars fell to the No. 4 BYU Cougars in the second round, 3-0. The 1994 NCAA tournament first round found No. 25 WSU, led by All-Pac-10 first team Sarah Silvernail, back in Albuquerque again with the No. 20 Lobos eking out a 3-2 victory on their home court.

The 1995 season found a very young Cougar team nicknamed the Baby Bombers (no seniors and only three juniors on the 14-member squad) finishing as the runners-up in the Pac-10 final standings. After being ranked as high as fifth-nationally - the highest national ranking for any WSU team up to that time - the Cougars were led by All-American Sarah Silvernail, All-Pac-10 selections Keren Oigman (first team), Stephanie Papke (honorable mention) and Jennifer Stinson (All-Freshman). WSU was ranked No. 11 going into the NCAA Championships and seeded third in the Pacific Region which accorded the Cougars a first round bye. WSU hosted an unranked Oral Roberts team in the second round and the older, internationally-experienced ORU team swept the Cougars in Pullman. Coach Cindy Fredrick was named the Pac-10 and AVCA District VIII Coach of the Year.

The most successful season in WSU volleyball history was the 1996 season. The Cougars had a 25-5 record, was the Pac-10 runners-up with the most conference wins ever (14), went undefeated at home in Bohler Gym (14-0) and was the first WSU women's team in any sport to advance past the second round in an NCAA tournament. Led by All-American and Pac-10 Player of the Year Sarah Silvernail and All-American and All-Pac-10 setter Stephanie Papke, the No. 9 Cougars received a first round bye and then hosted No. 24 Kansas State taking a 3-1 win. At the Pacific Regional semifinals at Stanford, WSU defeated No. 6 Loyola Marymount 3-1 and advanced to the Elite Eight. No. 2 Stanford won the regional final 3-0, a payback for the Cougars' first win over the Cardinal in 23 meetings a month earlier in the season. Stanford went on to win the national title while WSU finished No. 7 in the final AVCA national rankings.

The 1997 season marked the fifth consecutive year for WSU to participate in the NCAA Championship Tournament and the seventh consecutive year of post-season play. Ranked No. 11 nationally, WSU hosted the first and second rounds, defeating Lehigh 3-0 and No. 20 Colorado State 3-1 with All-Pac-10 selection Jennifer Stinson (now WSU Head Coach Jen Greeny) leading the way. The Cougs took on No. 8 Florida in the Central Regional Semifinals in Madison, Wis., falling in straight sets.

Washington State saw NCAA Championship tournament action again in 2000 with current Cougar Head Coach Jen Stinson Greeny joining Cindy Fredrick as an assistant coach. All-Pac-10 selection LaToya Harris led the unranked Cougars to a 3-0 first round win over Tennessee at University Park, Penn. In the second round the Cougars fell to the defending national champions and No. 8 Penn State Lions, 3-1. Harris earned her second All-Pac-10 honors in 2001, leading the Cougars to another at-large berth to the NCAA Championship Tournament. WSU hosted No. 11 Hawai'i only to have the Wahine take the match 3-0.

The Cougars racked up a 24-8 record in the 2002 season that included a 3-1 defeat of No. 1 Stanford in Pullman. LaToya Harris grabbed her third All-Pac-10 award while Holly Harris, Adrian Hankoff, Kortney Jamtaas and Chelsie Schafer were all named to the all-conference honorable mention team. Ranked No. 11, WSU traveled to Manhattan, Kan., and swept Oral Roberts in the first round and defeated No. 22 Kansas State 3-1. After a whirlwind of travel from Kansas back to Pullman to Gainesville, Florida, for the East Regional, the Cougars took on No. 6 Northern Iowa and after a 3-0 win moved back to the Elite Eight for the second time in school history. WSU gave the home team, the No. 5 Florida Gators, a good tussle but lost 3-1. WSU ended the season ranked No. 7.

The 2009 tournament bid marked the 10th trip to the NCAA Championship Tournament for the WSU volleyball program. Washington State joined seven other Pac-10 teams selected to play in the tournament giving more credence to the "Conference of Champions" title. Pac-10 Coach of the Year Andrew Palileo took the Cougars to Lincoln, Neb., for the first round, WSU falling to No. 20 Northern Iowa 3-0. Then freshman Rachel Todorovich led the Cougars with 15 kills, a .556 hitting percentage and 10 digs, and then sophomore Meagan Ganzer added 13 kills.

Jen Stinson Greeny became Washington State's head coach in the spring of 2011 and brings her NCAA experience as both a Cougars player and assistant coach back to the program. Rebuilding the program took a positive step forward when WSU's recruiting class of 2013 was named the 14th-best nationally by PrepVolleyball.com. The Cougars volleyball team is aiming to add to WSU's NCAA history in the very near future.

Head Coach Jen Greeny

Jen Greeny has tallied two seasons at the helm of the Washington State University volleyball program and continues to rebuild the program to the level of national prominence that it was when she played and was an assistant coach.

In March 2011, Greeny became the 12th coach in the history of the Cougars volleyball program. She has compiled a two-year record of 25-29 at WSU and has a six-year career record of 137-63 (.685). Jennifer Stinson Greeny played and coached at WSU during the program's most successful years on the Palouse and when hired, Greeny made a commitment to not only restore the program but to take it to the next level of success. To that end, she and her staff hit the recruiting trail at full speed and the incoming freshman class of 2013 is an outstanding one with three prep All-Americans.

In her first season as the head coach at WSU, Greeny's team doubled the total number of wins from the previous season, including four more wins in the elite Pac-12 Conference action. The Cougar volleyball team won 23 of 25 sets played in the spring of 2012. That fall WSU increased the overall win total (13-19) and had a strong 3-5 finish in the last portion of Pac-12 play. For the second year WSU landed a player on the All-Pac-12 postseason honors list with sophomore Jaicee Harris being tabbed to the 2012 honorable mention team. In 2011, senior Meagan Ganzer became the first Cougar to be named to All-Pac-12 and All-Pacific Region teams since 2002 when Greeny was as assistant coach. Under Greeny's mentoring, Ganzer became the fourth All-America player in WSU history and the first selected since 1996. Greeny, and her assistant coach Burdette Greeny, have coached eight All-Americans and two players who have had successful professional careers: Ganzer played in Puerto Rico and Romania, and Anile Clemente, a three-time All-American at Lewis-Clark State, played in Denmark.

Greeny has also changed the academic culture of the program with back-to-back-to-back semesters of a team grade point average of 3.0 or better. The volleyball team won the Seehafer Academic Award for the 2011 fall semester, an award given each semester for demonstrating the most improved academic performance or the greatest strides toward achieving its team academic goal.

As the head volleyball coach at Lewis-Clark State College (Lewiston, Idaho) from 2007-10, Greeny accumulating an impressive 112-24 record (.824) while turning the Warriors' program into one of the premier NAIA teams nationally. She took the reins of a struggling program and led it to the most successful seasons in program history, winning four consecutive Frontier Conference regular season titles and earned four consecutive berths to the NAIA National Tournament. The Warriors finished in the top 13 in the nation each year and ended the 2010 season at 31-3 (.912), the best mark in the history of the program. For four consecutive years, Greeny was named the Frontier Conference Coach of the Year and the American Volleyball Coaches' Association's Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

Jennifer Stinson was a stellar multi-sport athlete at Davenport (Wash.) High. At WSU she became the seventh player in WSU history with 1,000 career kills. A three-time All-Pacific-10 Conference selection, Greeny's statistics are prominent in WSU's all-time career lists ranking third in block assists (360), fourth in total blocks (419), and seventh in solo blocks (59). She trained with the 1997 U.S. National volleyball team.

Greeny also excelled in the classroom where she was WSU's Athlete of the Year in 1998-99. She was a CoSIDA District VIII Academic All-America first-team and second-team selection her final two years and was a Pac-10 Volleyball All-Academic selection three times. She received her bachelor's degree in education from WSU in 1999.

Greeny spent 4½ years on WSU Head Coach Cindy Fredrick's volleyball coaching staff. At the time of her departure from WSU in the spring of 2004, Greeny was involved in six of the 10 seasons Cougar volleyball qualified for the postseason, three as a player and three as an assistant coach. During her playing career, WSU was ranked as high as fifth in the country and made the Elite Eight of the NCAA Championship Tournament. Greeny was instrumental in WSU's second and only other appearance in the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament, in 2002, this time as an assistant coach.

Greeny and her husband, Burdette Greeny, a former standout pitcher at WSU and an assistant volleyball coach at WSU, have two young daughters Lauren and Leah.

Burdette Greeny, Assistant Coach

Burdette Greeny joined the Cougar volleyball program in March 2011 as an assistant coach after holding the same title at Lewis-Clark State for three seasons prior to being promoted to Associate Head Coach in 2010. While Greeny may not have originally envisioned coaching collegiate women's volleyball, his innate competitive nature and passion to see young people develop to their top potential both on and off the court have made him highly successful in this role.

WSU's 2013 class is evident of Greeny's outstanding talents on the recruiting trails. The Cougars welcome an Under Armour first team All-American, two honorable mention All-America players and a Gatorade State Player of the Year to the team in the fall of 2013.

"Burdette Greeny should be credited for much of the hard work in securing Prep Volleyball.com's 14th-best recruiting class," Cougar Head Coach Jen Greeny said. "From the day he was hired this 2013 class has been his focus. These recruits have said Burdette is easy and fun to talk to, is an amazing communicator, and is extremely passionate about Washington State and Pullman. Burdette cares not only about a player's skills in the recruiting process but also about each individual and if they will fit in with our team core values. Burdette has emerged as one of the best recruiting coordinators in the country and it definitely shows with the amount of talent and character in this 2013 class."

In first season at WSU, Head Coach Jen Greeny and her staff led the Cougars to double the total number of wins from the previous season, including four more wins in the elite Pac-12 Conference action. The Cougar volleyball team won 23 of 25 sets played in the spring of 2012. That fall WSU increased the overall win total (13-19) and had a strong 3-5 finish in the last portion of Pac-12 play. For the second year WSU landed a player on the All-Pac-12 postseason honors list with sophomore Jaicee Harris being tabbed to the 2012 honorable mention team. In 2011, senior Meagan Ganzer became the first Cougar to be named to All-Pac-12 and All-Pacific Region teams since 2002 when Greeny was as assistant coach. Under the mentoring of Greeny and her staff, Ganzer became the fourth All-America player in WSU history and the first selected since 1996. Greeny and her assistant coach Burdette Greeny have coached eight All-Americans and two players who have had successful professional careers: Ganzer and Anile Clemente, a three-time All-American at Lewis-Clark State.

The Cougar volleyball program also achieved great academic success with back-to-back-to-back semesters of a team grade point average of 3.0 or better and being awarded the Seehafer Academic Award for the 2011 fall semester. The Seehafer Academic Award is given twice a year for demonstrating the most improved academic performance or the greatest strides toward achieving its team academic goal.

Burdette Greeny assisted his wife, Jen, at Lewis-Clark State College from 2007-10. His areas of responsibility included coordinating recruiting, strength, conditioning and mental training, academic progress, the V-Club, and on-court skill technique coaching duties. In 2009, Greeny was one of 20 assistant coaches nominated for the NAIA National Assistant Coach of the Year Award. 's recruiting resume at LCSC included three Junior College First Team All-Americans, one Junior College Second Team All-American, one Gatorade State Player of the Year, two state players of the year, and 12 first team all-state selections.

lar in the classroom as well with the volleyball team GPA above 3.19 for the nearly every semester Greeny monitored the team's academic progress. During the fall 2009 season, the Warriors posted an astounding 3.59 team GPA with 14 of the 16 players getting above a 3.0, 12 of the 16 getting above a 3.25, six of the 16 getting above a 3.75, and four players garnering a perfect 4.0 GPA. In four years, 37 LCSC players were named to conference all-academic teams and seven players were selected as NAIA Volleyball National Scholar-Athletes.

Greeny was born in Port Angeles, Wash., to Burdette Jr. and Cynthia Greeny, both coaches with his mother a volleyball coach at Port Angeles High School. His sister, Karena, played basketball at Hawai'i.

Greeny was an all-league performer in both basketball and baseball at Port Angeles High. The Tacoma NewsTribune named Greeny one of the top ten pitchers in the state in 1993. That year he was drafted by the New York Mets in the 32nd round but chose to stay in school and attended Tacoma Community College from 1993 to 1995 where he played on year of basketball and two years of baseball. He earned second-team All-West Region honors both years as a third baseman and also set a school record for striking out 17 batters in a game against Lower Columbia Community College. He pitched for Washington State in 1997, winning the team's award for strength and conditioning. He signed as a free agent with the Milwaukee Brewers before the 1998 draft and was with the organization for two seasons.

Burdette Greeny earned a degree in humanities with an emphasis in English from WSU in 1999. From 2000 through 2007 he was the head coach in the Pullman American Legion Baseball organization. His teams won two regular season titles, one district title, and made the first appearance by a Pullman team at the state tournament since 1968. Greeny's Pullman team tallied the first state tournament win in the 60-year history of the program. Of his American Legion players, 88 percent went on to play college baseball.

Burdette and Jen Greeny have two young daughters, Lauren and Leah.

Shannon Hunt, Assistant Coach

Shannon Wyckoff Hunt joined the Cougar volleyball program as a volunteer coach in August 2011 and was promoted to assistant coach in the spring of 2013.

She was an outstanding student and athlete at WSU from 1994 through 1997, and a teammate of Greeny. During Hunt's collegiate career the Cougars volleyball team played all four years in the NCAA Championship Tournament and advanced to the Elite Eight once and to the Sweet Sixteen once.

Hunt was the first Washington State player to reach 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs in a career. Her 1,254 career digs was the WSU all-time list leader from 1997 until 2008 and is currently second-best all-time. Hunt tallied 1,051 career kills which was fifth-best at the time and now ranks ninth-highest in school history. In addition, her career 83 service aces total is ranked 11th-best at WSU.

Hunt competed at Prairie High near Vancouver, Wash., and was the state volleyball Player of the Year three consecutive years - twice in AA and once in AAA. She was the first four-time all-league selection in the history of the Greater St. Helens League. The Falcons' volleyball team finished fourth three times in the state championships. Her senior year Prairie also won the state AAA Academic title. Hunt was a starter on the Nike Northwest Juniors Club team all five years she played.

At Washington State, Hunt started on the left side as a freshman and missed only six matches in the starting lineup, due to injury, during her four-year career. As a sophomore Hunt's 376 digs led team and 3.72 digs per game was third-best in conference. She set a school record with 32 digs in a match at South Florida in 1995. She was named to two all-tournament teams as a junior and was an important cog in the Cougars' advancing to the NCAA Championships Elite Eight. As a senior, Hunt continued amassing kills and digs as an outside hitter, earned two more all-tournament honors, and helped lead the Cougars to the Sweet Sixteen at the NCAA Championships.

Hunt was recognized for her academic excellence with Pac-10 All-Academic second team and honorable mention selections as well as being named to the GTE/CoSIDA District VIII Academic All-America Teams three times.

After graduating from WSU in the spring of 1998 with a degree in education, Hunt taught at the elementary level in the Vancouver, Wash., and coached volleyball at Heritage High and Hockinson High Schools.

Prior to returning to WSU Hunt taught and coached in the Vancouver, Wash., area for a dozen years. She was the head volleyball coach at Prairie High School in Brush Prairie, Wash., for the 2000 through 2003 seasons where she tallied a state championship tournament berth and had three players advance from prep to collegiate volleyball careers. Hunt then moved to the newly constructed Hockinson High School, also in Brush Prairie, Wash., where she was the head volleyball coach from 2004 through 2010. At Hockinson, Hunt led two Hawks' volleyball teams to state championship tournaments and had five players play collegiately after their prep volleyball careers.

Hunt lives in Pullman with her husband Joe and their grade-school aged sons Grayson and Austin.

Katie Hinrichs Operations Coordinator

Katie Hinrichs (pronounced hen-ricks) joined the Cougar volleyball staff in June 2011 after an outstanding prep and collegiate playing career.

Hinrichs played libero for WSU Head Coach Jen Greeny at Lewis-Clark State College and during her career the Warriors tallied 112 wins and 24 losses, won four regular season and post-season Frontier Conference titles, and advanced to the national NAIA Championship Tournament all four years. Hinrichs, a three-year team captain, had school-record performances including digs in a match with 41 against Doane at the 2009 NAIA Tournament, single-season digs (561 in 2010), and her 1,585 career digs is second-best all-time at LCSC. She was a four-time Frontier Conference All-Academic selection. She received her bachelor's degree in Business Administration from LC State in 2011.

Hinrichs is a native of Pullman, Wash., and was a volleyball, basketball and softball standout at Pullman High School. She earned three varsity letters playing volleyball for Greeny at PHS where the Greyhounds accumulated an 84-12 record. She earned first-team All-Great Northern League honors as well as all-state honors as a junior and senior. The Pullman volleyball team won its first state volleyball championship in 2005 and placed in the top eight in 2006 and 2007. Hinrichs was a guard on the basketball team and led squad to third-place finish at state her junior year and to the league title as a senior. She started all four years at shortstop on the PHS softball team, earning second-team all-league honors her first year two years and then first-team honors her final two years. She was voted the softball team's MVP three times and an all-state selection as a senior.

Hinrichs was named Pullman High's Female Athlete of the Year in 2007 and was awarded the Jessica Clark Memorial Scholarship. In addition to athletics, she was the ASB Vice President and a member of the Athletic Council.

Hinrich's father and grandfather are Washington State alums. Father Phil pitched for Cougar baseball in 1978 and 1979 and went on to play in the San Francisco Giants organization. Grandfather Bob ran the 120yd hurdles for the WSU track team. Older brothers Phil Jr. and Kyle also attended WSU with Phil competing on the cross country and track teams, and Kyle on the baseball team.

Kali Gesser Volunteer Coach

Kali Surplus Gesser is a volunteer coach at Washington State University for the 2013 season, joining Jen Greeny who was as assistant coach at WSU during Gesser's playing career in 2000 and 2001.

An Oregon native, Gesser played high school volleyball at Burns HS and then at Gresham HS. She played on the High Desert Volleyball Club for five years with mother as coach with Rod Jones, and also with the Nike Northwest Juniors for one year with Jones as coach. Her NW Jrs. team placed 11th at Nike Las Vegas Invite and 16th at Arizona Classic and were runners up at the 1998 Davis Festival.

The next stop on Gesser's playing career was at Salt Lake Community College where her teams finished 33-14 in 1998 and 45-4 in 1999, claiming the Scenic West Athletic Conference co-championship. She was selected the Region 18 Southern Division tournament MVP and selected first team NJCAA All-America. The team was runners-up at the NJCAA National Championships Tournament and she was named co-MVP of the NJCAA National Tournament.

At WSU, Gesser was an All-Pac-10 honorable mention selection at setter both years. Her career assists total of 2,540 was fifth-best all-time even after only a two-year career with the Cougars.

Gesser is married to former Cougar great quarterback Jason, now an assistant football coach at Wyoming, and they have a daughter, Jordyn, and two sons, Kolten and Kruz.

Academic All-America® Teams as selected by CoSIDA

The Academic All-America teams program was created in 1952 by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) to honor college athletes who excel in not just sports but also in academics. To be eligible for the Academic All-American honors, a student-athlete must have at least a 3.20 cumulative grade point average (on a 4.0 scale), must be a significant contributor to the team, and be in at least their second season at their current school. District VIII includes schools in the states of Alaska, Arizona, California, Hawai'i, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and British Columbia.

Bohler Gym

The Best Volleyball-only Facility in the Pac-12

Home to Cougar Athletics since 1928.

One of the only facilities solely dedicated to volleyball in the nation.

Dominating home court advantage as fans are virtually on top of the action.

Cougars enjoy tremendous fan support from the University and the Pullman communities.

“Volleyball specific gyms are the future and Bohler Gym is a testament to the commitment Washington State University has made to Women’s Volleyball and to the growth of our sport.”

Volleyball Magazine, May 2003

The Cougars’ home court is now called Marcia Saneholtz Court at Bohler Gym in honor of the 28-year administrative veteran of Cougar Athletics who retired Oct. 1, 2007. Saneholtz was the WSU Senior Associate Athletics Director/SWA and was a long-time proponent of gender equity and a champion for all sports at WSU as well as in the Pac-10 and the nation. She was the NACWAA president (1992-93), on the board of directors (1987-94), and named 1997 Administrator of the Year. She also received the NAGWS Pathfinder Award in 2001 and WSU Woman of Distinction in 2003. Saneholtz will be added to the Inland Empire Scroll of Honor in the fall of 2009.
